New York Club Gets Joe Gedeon--Georgetown Quint Vanquishes G. W.

GEDEON AWARDED TO YANKEES: GRIFFITH CLAIMS A RAW DEAL; LITTLE CHANCE OF CIVIL SUIT

"Feds Stole Him from Me," Declares Old Fox, and Also Blames Ban Johnson for Loss of Player-Other Sport News and Gossip.

By WILLIAM PEET.

Joe Gedeon will draw wages from the New York Americans this season. Washington's claim to Gedeon's services has been turned down cold by President Ban Johnson of the American League and the player awarded to the

This information reached Manager Griffith yesterday, and brought from the Old Fox a straight-from-the-shoulder statement, as follows: "Yes, I've lost Gedeon, after spending good money on him. The Federal League stole him from me. I possessed the prior right to his services, and my claims would be upheld by any civil court in the country.

"I don't know that Gedeon would have made good for us this season, but I always figured that he had the makings of a major leaguer and was willing to take a chance with him. Now I've lost him and, naturally, I am sore.
